We the people of . . . . . constituency believe that there should be a democratic contest for the leadership of the Labour Party so that there may be an open debate on the future policy direction of the British Government. We call upon you, ... MP, as our elected representative to ensure that there is such a contest, which reflects the wide range of opinion within the Labour Party, by nominating John McDonnell.

Name (please PRINT)	Address	Signature